MEMORANDUM FOR: Training Liaison Officers.

SUBJECT: Summer Session at School for Advanced International Studies (Washington, D.C.) on THE IMPACT OF SOVIET IMPERIALISM ON THE FREE WORLD

REFERENCES: (a) Memorandum to TLO's, 31 December 1952, subject: Summer Program at SAIS on Soviet Imperialism
(b) Memorandum to TLO's, 20 March 1953, same subject

1. Further details on program discussed in reference memoranda now are available and are disseminated herewith.

2. The total activity consists of five courses and a weekly seminar, supplemented by a five-day conference. A full-time academic program consists of (a) two elected courses taken on a full-participation basis, (b) one elective on an audit basis, (c) the weekly seminar and (d) the one-week conference. All students are expected to participate on a full credit basis. Academic credit from the Johns Hopkins University is available.

3. Classes begin on 29 June and continue to 26 August. Each course will meet for two two-hour sessions each week. All classes and the seminars will meet during the time from 0730-0930 and 1930-2130 hours. The conference will meet all day from 10-14 August inclusive.

4. Due to a change in the date of admissions, applications to attend at government expense may still be submitted to the Director of Training. All applications must be sent via I&S/O, and must be received in the Office of Training not later than 20 May. Following approval by the Director of Training, each individual will receive from OTR an SAIS admissions form and will perform his own registration. An advance of approved funds is available for this purpose. Registration at SAIS may be performed at any time during May and must be completed not later than 29 May by all employees sponsored by the Office of Training. Registration may be performed after that date at personal expense.

5. Tuition is $165 and registration is $5. Up to $15 for books will be allowed to persons who do not wish to retain them after conclusion of the program.

6. Persons desiring further information may call Chief, Programs Division, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

MATTHEW BAIRD

Director of Training
